RE: Joshua Breto

The purpose of this letter is to introduce a student of mine, Joshua Breto. Academically speaking, Joshua has consistently scored in the top 5% of all subject material I've covered with him. I've had the pleasure of having Joshua in my Psychology and Sociology classes here at Spanish River High School this past year.

Joshua's study habits and attitude makes him a role model among his peers. Mr. Breto has demonstrated, in nearly every occasion, his ability to set and achieve goals set by himself and the goals set by his teachers. Joshua's unique ability to grasp important information and to turn that information into a useful product seems to be his strong point. I feel that Joshua is a natural leader that quietly commands the respect of his peers. His outgoing personality makes him a standout in class-constantly proving himself to be an achiever.

I would wholeheartedly recommend Joshua Breto. He is an example of a student that goes the extra mile to make a difference. Joshua would make a fine addition to any group or organization. If any further information is needed please let me know and I would be happy to comply.

Sincerely,
